GENERAL ADMINISTRATION

- After a week of different activities, the GC resumed the work of the plenary session, and devoted this week to the process of new models, the action plan of the Secretariat of Mission, the preparation of the extended General Councils and the proposals of FMSI. Two days were dedicated to an integrated work with the Secretariats and other sectors of the general administration in preparation for the next General Chapter. On the afternoon of the 17th, the GC attended a conference at the General House given by the monk Lluç Torcal, Procurator General of the Cistercians, on the experience of "ecological conversion" in the maintenance of the Monastery of Poblet, Catalonia.
- Br Libardo Garzón, Econome General, participated in Nairobi, at the meeting of the finance committee of the MIC and MIUC. He also attended the first day of the seminar on the economic sustainability of the life and mission of the provinces of Africa and Asia.
- From Feb. 15 - 22, the co-directors of the Secretariat of the Laity are meeting at the General House.
- On Feb. 17, the Council of the Fratelli Project met at the general house. It includes Brothers Joe McKee, vicar general, and Chris Wills, director of Cmi, and two De La Salle Brothers. approves plans and budgets and it appoints people holding posts at the regional level.

In this year's meeting, as usual, it spent a lot of time on the MIC and the MIUC since they are important for the initial formation of young brothers and for the big amount of brothers in its community. (It currently has 78 Brothers from five administrative units.)

It dedicated a full day to the encounter with the team of the New Models project and with the Commission of the Mission in Africa (to analyse and value its strategic plan, which covers the capacity of directors, youth ministry, solidarity, children's rights...). The encounter included several members of the general administration.

It covered other topics such as: the economy of the provinces and a sustainability plan; vocations, formation and perseverance; lay presence in the Marist life and mission and a better understanding of the lay vocation on behalf of the Brothers...

The provincial brothers and District superiors participated in a workshop animated by former superior general Brother Seán Sammon on Feb. 12 – 13, alongside other guest Brothers.

He spoke of community life, particularly on some concrete difficulties that can come up in the relationship between Brothers.

Once again, the group had a lot of support from the MIC community and enjoyed the beauty of the place, always well taken care of.

They also participated in daily Mass with the whole community, and they began Lent together on Feb. 10, Ash Wednesday.

ARGENTINA: ENCOUNTER OF EDUCATORS IN CRUZ DEL SUR TO PROMOTE AN INNOVATIVE MARIST EDUCATIONAL STYLE

An encounter for Marist educators, which has been taking place for the past 20 years, was held from Feb. 4 – 9 in the city of Mar del Plata, Argentina.

Teachers, who have recently joined Marist schools and works of the Cruz del Sur Province, gathered together to, according to the Province, "create a setting that reflects the charism of Champagnat" and that "provokes them to get new knowledge and skills to challenge and promote a different and innovative Marist educational style."

Other goals include promoting a tender look on behalf of the Marist teacher that values respect and care for the rights of our children.

"Our specific objectives are to provoke a reflection for Marist spirituality and pedagogy for assimilation and witness, and to create networks that facilitate and allow the shared mission of the Cruz del Sur community," said a statement released by the Province.

"Other goals include enhancing leadership multipliers and facilitators of the Marist school to evangelise by educating and promoting a tender look on behalf of the Marist teacher that values respect and care for the rights of our children," it continued. "Participants reflected on the educational mission and the role of teachers as Champagnat Marists, with all that this implies."

The topics discussed were the life of St Marcellin, service leadership, the Marist educational mission, spirituality, new proposals for the Marist laity, the work of the Institute in the world and its governance structures, locally and globally. Other issues included public policy, the right of children and youth and other issues addressed from the bibliographic and professional support of Marist life.

"Obviously, the climate of respect and deep reflection was complemented by the joy and the willingness of all these days to bear fruit and provide us with tools to keep walking in this very exciting endeavor."

COMPOSTELA RECEIVES NEW PROVINCIAL BROTHER TOMÁS BRIONGOS RICA

After consultation with all the Brothers of the Province of Compostela, Brother Tomás Briongos Rica will take up the post as the new provincial on March 20 for a three-year term.

Br António Leal had been appointed as the new provincial in October, but for health reasons he was not able to take up his post and submitted his resignation.

"Both Br António and myself have reached the conclusion that he needs more time and a relatively calm rhythm of life to facilitate his full recover," said superior general Brother Emili Turú in his letter to the province dated Feb. 12.

Br Emili went on to thank the current provincial, Brother Oscar Martín Vicario, for prolonging his term in what he called "a not so easy situation of transition."

Br Tomás was born the smallest of five siblings on 23 Dec. 1967 in Peñalba de Castro, in Spain's province of Burgos.

He entered the juniorate in Miraflores in Sept. 1981 and after three years of studying, he began his novitiate in Sept. 1984.

He was elected as provincial councillor in 2010 and served as vice provincial since 2013.

THE MEMORARE IN THE SNOW: FEBRUARY 1823

In February 1823, Marcellin learned that Brother Jean-Baptiste in Bourg-Argental had come down with a serious illness.

Concerned about his condition, the young priest set out on the twenty-kilometre journey across rough countryside to visit him. Brother Stanislaus was at his side.

On their return trip, walking through heavily timbered territory, the two men were caught in the full fury of one of the region's snowstorms.

Both were young and energetic, but hours of wandering lost on the slopes of Mount Pilat led eventually to exhaustion.

Stanislaus had reached the limits of his stamina. Night set in; the possibility of death in the snow increased with each passing hour.

Both men turned to Mary for help and prayed the Memorare.

Within a short while, they spied lamplight, not too far away in the distance.

A local farmer, Mr. Donnet, had left his house to enter a nearby stable.

This particular evening, though, he had taken an unusual route, especially with the storm underway.

By habit, he entered the stable through a convenient door in the wall of the house.

For reasons that can be explained only by faith, this particular night he braved wind and snow and chose a route that took him outdoors with his lantern.

For the rest of his days, Marcellin saw his deliverance and that of Brother Stanislaus - henceforth referred to as the Memorare in the Snow - as an act of Providence.

Prayer of Saint Bernard

Remember,
O most gracious
Virgin Mary,
that never was it known that anyone who fled
to thy protection,
implored thy help,
or sought
thy intercession

Inspired
with this confidence,

I fly to thee,
O Virgin of virgins,
my Mother;
to thee do I come;
before thee I stand,
sinful and sorrowful.

O Mother
of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions,
but in thy mercy
hear and answer me.
Amen.

INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION FOR THE REVISION OF THE CONSTITUTIONS MEET AGAIN IN ROME

COMMISSION HOPES TO FINISH FIRST DRAFT OF REVISION BY END OF FEBRUARY

The commission for the revision of the Constitutions met at the general house from Feb. 8 – 13 to continue working on a first draft, which it hopes to finish by the end of February.

“The spirit of the commission is excellent and the work is being very delicate towards the contributions it received,” said the coordinator, general councillor Brother Josep Maria Soterias.

The draft is based on proposals made by the administrative units in 2015 with the help of the book ‘Stories of the Journey, told around the Fire’ that the first commission had made.

“It will collect the contributions that the Brothers have mostly insisted on, as essential ideas, although it will not yet be the final outline,” he told the general house press office on Feb. 10.

After the text is finished at the end of February, the commission hopes to have it translated and sent to the administrative units by the end of April. Br Josep Maria explained that an inquiry form will probably be sent along with the draft concerning the General Chapter to avoid the units having to fill out extra forms.

The current commission includes Brothers Josep María Soteras (General Councillor and coordinator of the commission), Tony Clark (Australia), Eduardo Navarro de la Torre (México Occidental), Albert Nzabonaliba (East Central Africa), and Antonio Peralta (Santa María de los Andes).

The group last met from Nov. 2 – 14, also at the general house, during which the commission looked at the proposals and began working on the first draft.

The Commission will send the draft to the Provinces end of April and the Brothers of each administrative unit will have until September to study it.
