PROVINCE OF IBÉRICATHE PROVINCE OF IBÉRICA PROMOTES THE CHILDREN’S RIGHTS

The Province of Ibérica continues to work for the promotion of Children’s Rights among minors, educators, families and people around the educational establishments. In this sense, prevention and empowerment work with students through specific tutorials according to different ages is especially important. Likewise, training is carried out for teachers, volunteers and other professionals from the schools.

In all the Marist Provinces with works in Spain there are – since 2011 – child protection policies that have implemented prevention, awareness-raising and intervention actions in schools.

Training Videos

The Child Protection Team of Ibérica presents a series of training videos aimed at all families of educational institutions: “Abuse in our reality: how do I protect my son or daughter” (Malos tratos en nuestra realidad: cómo protejo a mi hijo o hija). There will be a total of 8 episodes that will be broadcast in the coming months. The objective of the videos is to offer families some keys about the different types of abuse that exist, paying special attention to signs that can alert us that children or young people are suffering, and giving guidelines for action if there is abuse.

The videos are published on the following platform: <https://maristasiberica.com/videosproteccionmenor/>

For now, you can watch an introductory video that explains the reason for this training and offers a series of data that highlight the importance of training families in this area: what abuse means, what types of abuse exist, what consequences they can have for our children and young people and what families can do about it.

Episode 2, which will be released on February 15, will take an in-depth look at “Physical Abuse.” And the following videos, with a fortnightly frequency, will offer keys and information on abuse due to negligence, abuse between equals, emotional abuse, pornography, abuse on social networks, and finally, sexual abuse.

FEBRUARY 1823.

MEMORARE IN THE SNOW

En February 1823, Marcellin Champagnat came close to fainting in the snow, but instead of losing hope, he prayed the “Memorare” and entrusted himself to the Virgin Mary.

This event is celebrated in the Marist World on 15 February with the evocation “Memorare in the Snow” which recalls the exhausted itinerary under the snow that Father Champagnat and Brother Stanislaus made on their way home, after having visited Brother John the Baptist, who was ill.

Realizing that it was impossible to continue and that they were lost, Father Marcellin entrusted himself to Our Lady and began to pray the “Memorare”.

Br. François first Superior General of the Marist Institute

46. SAINTLY INFIRMARIAN

Br François became a companion to the sick, even, at one point, asking to accompany the Brothers in their agony, and he carried out this ministry for a very long time, from 1826 until his death, with the breaks imposed by his other duties.

“Father Champagnat had made him follow a short course in medicine and appointed him infirmarian of the Brothers. He prepared remedies with great skill; the sick preferred him to anyone else”.

One Brother related the following anecdote: In 1860, while I was at the Hermitage as a temporary nurse, the following happened to me: Br Ceferino, of the junior class, had his tonsils operated on. The left one, which had been cut too deeply, caused a considerable haemorrhage from 4 to 8 pm. Leaving the sick man in the care of another brother, I ran to call the Reverend Brother, who came at once. He asked me for the bottle of sulphuric acid and, having taken some cotton wool soaked in the acid, he applied it for a moment to the outside of the neck, on the left side, and at once the haemorrhage stopped. Was it the application of the acid that stopped the haemorrhage or the Superior’s prayer? Well, he prayed while applying the soaked cotton wool. I don’t know. What is certain is that the haemorrhage stopped instantly and the sick man, who had syncope, regained consciousness instantly.

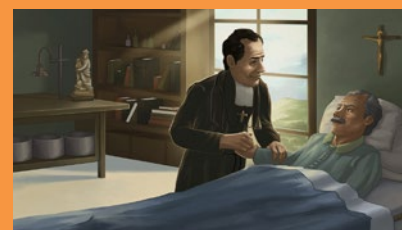

To another Brother he wrote:

“My dear Brother. The illness of dear Brother Acaire gives me the opportunity to recommend to you strongly that you give abundantly to your collaborators what they need to endure the fatigues of teaching: preserving their health is the greatest economy you can make for the Society, always within the limits of the Rule, unless (I think I need not remind you of this) there is an extraordinary need which a paternal care often discovers, even before the religious has manifested it...”

One of his resolutions was very clear on this point:

“To see Jesus in the person of the sick; I will visit them and comfort them as much as I can”.

OPENING OF THE HERMITAGE HOUSE FOR YOUNG BROTHERS IN BACAU

On Saturday 29th January, Fr Avelino, a local diocesan priest, officiated at the official opening and blessing of the House of Studies in Bacau, Timor Leste. After a discernment process, the brothers of Bacau decided to call "Hermitage" to their community. The name is related to the Institute's mother house, but also connecting to the fact that a scholasticate was built on the Hermitage in the beginning of the Institute's history. The formation house has 7 brothers, among them 6 are temporary professed brothers, who are following the formation period after the novitiate. They will follow their journey guided by Brother Robert Speare.

Besides the 6 brothers in formation, Timor has 8 novices, who will travel in March to Sri Lanka, where they will continue the formation period of this stage. Another 5 young postulants are preparing to enter the novitiate. The brothers working in Timor, besides the young brothers of the country, are from Australia (6) and Brazil (1). There are three houses of formation (postulancy, novitiate and scholasticate, with 1 brother formator at each community) and another community that has 3 brothers working in the Catholic Institute of Teacher Training.

MADAGASCAR

THE LYCÉE SAINT PIERRE CHANEL CELEBRATED 35 YEARS OF EXISTENCE IN MADAGASCAR

The Saint Pierre Chanel high school in Ihosy (Madagascar) celebrated its 35th anniversary during the 2020-2021 school year. The theme that animated the course of the year was “Marist education, for a new life”. The educational center belongs to the diocese of Ihosy and is administered by the Marist Brothers since its creation in 1986.

The celebrations of the anniversary of the Catholic and Marist school had among its objectives:

- Promote pastoral animation (emphasize the importance of education and spiritual life),
- Strengthen unity within the educational community (Parents and Educators) and among students,
- Raise funds to improve the educational infrastructure (it is planned to build a 700M perimeter wall).

Despite the difficulties, especially due to the health crisis, the celebration of the Marist school has been carried out without difficulties and the objectives set have been achieved largely.

The school continues with its educational activities, and looking forward to the next 35 years, the brothers and lay Marists work together ceaselessly to give the best of themselves and strive so “Marist Education to generate a New Life” in the Region of Madagascar.

Le Lycée Privé Saint Pierre Chanel

Saint Pierre Chanel private school was founded in 1986. The establishment offers a comprehensive and quality education to its students. On the other hand, it lends its facilities (rooms) for catechism and meetings of youth movements; and sports fields are available to the city’s youth on weekends.

In its beginnings, the campus had only the secondary level, made up of 145 students. From the beginning, the high school has been mixed, and has welcomed boys and girls. It started in 1986 with the opening of the 6th grade class and in 1993, six years later, Saint Pierre Chanel had its first high school promotion.

Currently the population of the school is composed of 1150 students and 48 teachers and collaborators. It is worth mentioning that every year « Le Lycée » obtains good results in different official exams.

Likewise, several alumni hold key positions in different sectors, nationally and also abroad. Many of them are honest leaders, good Christians with a sense of responsibility and who fight for justice.
