I would like to encourage all the elected delegates to attend and make this a priority. The Provincial Chapter is a historical and a life changing event in the Province that happens only once every three (3) years. I wish to hear the voices of our Brothers who voted for you to be their representatives/delegates during the 6th Provincial Chapter.

In case of unavoidable of non-acceptance of the election, the brother will write a letter to the Provincial stating the reason why he will not accept it. The person next in order of votes received will take his place as alternate.

The Provincial Chapter will be in a hybrid form. It will be both face-to-face and online. The participants are being ask to come together in their own sectors if possible. For example, Korea-Japan sector in Seoul (Sector House), China sector in Petaling Jaya (Sector House) or you can decide wherever is most convenient. For the Philippine sector, the Provincial Chapter will be at Marist Asia Spirituality and Mission Center in Lake Sebu.

Congratulations Brothers! Please continue to pray for one another as Mary as our guide and St. Marcellin Champagnat, our model.

God bless.
